Even the little children in Ireland, according to Hugh O'Donnell, have the true Irish sense of humor. He was standing before Nelson's statue, he said, when he asked a youngster: "Was Nelson really Irish?" "That he was," replied the child. "That's why he is what he was."

HENNING RESIGNATION PROVES BIG SURPRISE TO PEOPLE OF MAUI

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
WAILUKU, Maui, Aug. 31.—That William Henning was to resign from the Maui board of supervisors was a piece of news that Maui people did not altogether enjoy. The step on Henning's part was a complete surprise to most people here. Then when it was later known that Edgar Morton's resignation had been asked for, the rumor was started that Henning was slated for Morton's job, and that Dr. J. H. Raymond, manager of the big Ulupalakua ranch, would be the supervisor appointed by the Governor in Henning's place. That a portion at least of this surprise was true seems to be a fact from the announcement in Saturday's Star-Bulletin that that very day Governor Pinkham had already appointed Dr. J. H. Raymond on the Maui board of supervisors.

That a systematic movement has been started on Maui to put a Republican in a Republican's place there is no doubt, and it was understood by Republican leaders on this island that the governor would not hurry in his appointment, but wait a little for the opinion of Maui to express itself. A petition was circulated last week in Lahaina to the effect that some local man might be appointed on the board to represent the interests of that side of Maui. An effort also in Wailuku and vicinity was made to bring before the governor the advisability of the executive to place a Republican on the board in view of the fact that a Republican was originally chosen by the people.

The movement in the matter of the tax offices here is supposed to be in accord with the possibility of a general clearing out of the present tax officers throughout the territory, when C. J. McCarthy succeeds Treasurer Conkling. It is expected that either or perhaps both J. N. K. Keola and Edgar Morton may be replaced. J. H. Kunewa, the head of the department on Maui, may also be one of the victims in the general slaughter that seems to be taking place.

KIAOCHAU MAY NOT BE TURNED OVER TO CHINA

Kiaochoau, the German base in China, may not be turned over to China when wrested by Japan from Germany, according to an evidently inspired dispatch to the Japan Daily Mail. The Mail said a few days ago:

"Judging by the tone of the reports received here from American and Peking with reference to this country's ultimatum to Germany, undue importance is attached to the second clause of the same document where eventual restoration of Kiaochoau to China is mentioned."

"It should be clearly understood in this connection, that the ultimatum does not presuppose any resistance by force on the part of the German government. It simply limits itself to the case of a peaceful transfer of Kiaochoau to this country. Should Germany refuse to comply with this country's demand and leave the ultimatum unanswered by the time stipulated, it is understood that Japan will take free ac-

JAPAN IS MAKING PLANS FOR DEVELOPING WIRELESS SERVICE

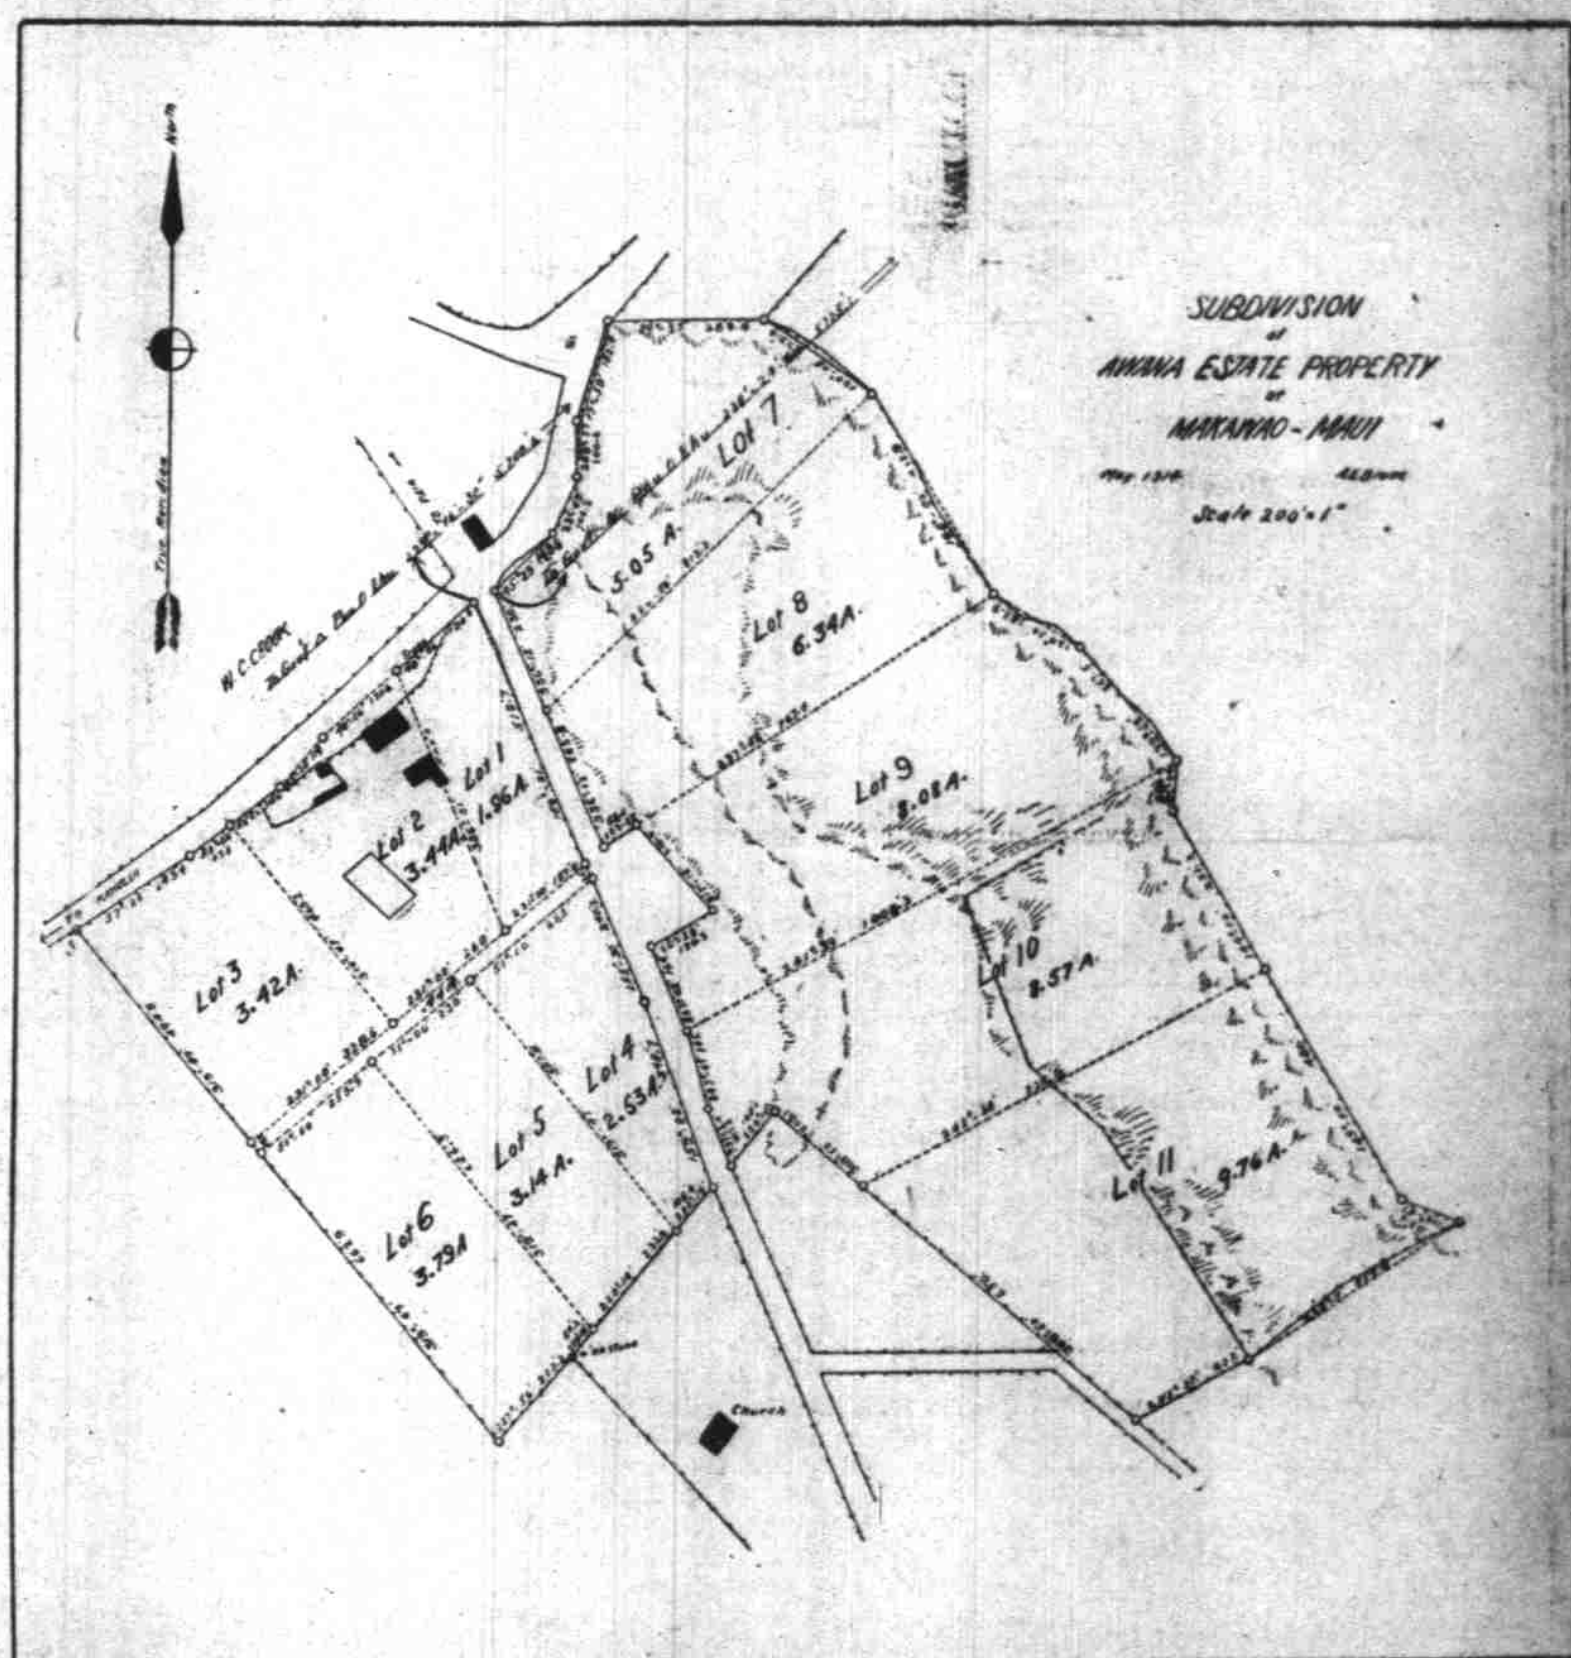

[By Latest Mail]
TOKIO, Japan.—The Marconi company last year applied to the Japanese government for the lease of a lot of land near Yokohama for construction of a wireless station, but the government preferred the expansion of the electric experimental station of the department of communications to granting the permission for the establishment of a wireless station in Japan and refused the application.

There are at present about 20 wireless telegraphy companies in the world and large companies such as the Marconi company of England and the Pausen company of Germany are independently contemplating the establishment of wireless communications round the world.

The authorities are also negotiating with the department of navy to utilize the naval wireless station at Funabashi for furthering the communication. If this project is carried into effect wireless communication between Japan, Hawaii and San Francisco will be realized and the record of events happening in Japan and America will be transmitted within one hour.

naturally changes with respect to the restoration of the place to China. Neither Japan nor any other country could be expected to be so foolish as to promise beforehand the disposition of its prizes of war before taking up hostile operations.

"This point should be clearly understood and it should be remembered that the ultimatum to Germany does not presume anything except and beyond what is mentioned therein."
